

WORKSHOP ON ANIMAL HISTORY VIENNA 2025

ZRC SAZU

INSTITUT FÜR
WISO WIRTSCHAFTS- UND
ZIALGESCHICHTE

APRIL 9-10

Seminarraum WISO

Universitätsring 1, 1010 Wien

With financial support from the Slovenian research agency (funding no. Z6-4613) and JESH (Joint Excellence in Science and Humanities).

WORKSHOP ON ANIMAL HISTORY

DAY 1

Wednesday, April 9, 3.30pm–6.30pm

3.30PM–5PM

Participant Presentations

Daša Ličen (ZRC SAZU) - The Habsburg Empire: Tamed and Untamed

Tadej Pavković (University of Ljubljana) - Animal Bodies as an Archive

Wolfgang Göderle (University of Graz) - The Habsburg Anthropocene

Ruža Fotiadis (Humboldt University) - On Donkey Trails into the Modern Age

Janis Nalbadidacis (Humboldt University) - The Discovery of an Insect. Finding and Fighting the Phylloxera in 19th Century Europe

5.30PM–6.30PM

Themed issue in the journal Traditiones (discussion)

7PM WORKSHOP DINNER

Gasthaus Rebhuhn

DAY 2

Thursday, April 10, 9.30pm–12.30pm

DISCUSSION ON THE WORKING GROUP APPLICATION

Reshaping Human–Animal Spheres in the Anthropocene: A Network for Historians of Central and Southeastern Europe in the 19th and 20th Century